Emporio Armani's Bodywear collection for Fall-Winter '23 develops along macro themes comprising homewear, loungewear and underwear lines coordinated in different tones and inspirations, to please all customers' taste and style, still keeping loyal to the Brand's DNA.

The "Soft tones" line is characterized by neutral colours such as the iconic stone grey nuance, and by soft touch fabrics, such as the bamboo eco-viscose for the new line of underwear and t-shirt bi-packs, offering an enveloping 'second-skin' effect; classic marine blue is renovated through contrasting touches of arctic light blue. Dévorée cotton chenille is personalized by macro-lettering and ribbings; the three-coloured dyed yarn and small geometric patterns complete all outfits, from underwear to socks. In the macro-theme inspired by a contemporary campus lifestyle atmosphere we find the corduroy line personalized by contrasting details and macro-patch lettering, made sophisticated by beige colour tones, matched with marine blue or mélange grey. The themed elastic bands are textured with 3D or cannété effects with shiny tonal logos and small label details personalize the series, with a sporty but refined taste.

Total looks are completed by terry socks and rubber poolside sandals with an unusual velvet upper.

The 'College' inspiration here turns towards "urban street" thanks to stronger contrasts and framed logos, as for the new sanded fleece series, characterized by piping and ribbed inserts; creme, marine blue and mustard are the colours characterizing these series, adding a casual touch to home-wear wardrobe.

The more classic part of the loungewear collection has at its heart the pyjama. Micro-pattern jersey, interlock and modal have all been updated in their fit: the jumper lines are softer and wider to ensure maximum comfort, while the pants keep a slim cut, with the unmistakable Italian style.

The new waist-line construction for the woven trousers adds a sartorial detail to typical shirt fabrics, enhanced by the sophisticated match of oxford blue and burgundy which characterizes the whole line. Classic red and marine Tartan characterizes the traditional Christmas capsule, pyjamas with warm double jersey top and the flannel based dressing gown represent the perfect gift, to be matched with the "puffy" slippers or the fun gift boxes, comprising trunks and socks, or else the underwear bi-packs. Silver tones and shiny tonal logos offer a solid colour alternative to mark special occasions. The more nocturnal tones of dark mélange grey add character to the new wool-effect viscose, which for this season sees the addition of a versatile high neck model; the all over logoed mesh with wide jersey borders characterizes tank tops and bottoms, adding a hyper-trendy touch to the collection.

Black, contrasted by sophisticated arctic tones redesigns the boundaries of sport inspiration, interpreted in the new microfibre with graded compression textured inserts for trunks and bikers matched with classic terry, personalized by the iconic logo.
